Cabin/Cockpit Layout

290 Sundancer®

2001

With a large, carpeted, self-bailing cockpit, the 290 Sundancer has plenty of room for all your family and friends. The forward-facing fiberglass arch provides easy entry at the dock.

The portside sun lounger is the perfect place for sun lovers who prefer to work on their tans in cushioned comfort. The wet bar is located right at the tips of the sun lover's toes.

Cockpit seating includes an aft-facing double seat and a removable aft bench seat. Optional cockpit table and filler cushions turn the area into a sun pad. Through the portside transom door, the swim platform features a concealed stainless steel swim ladder.

Step aboard the Sea Ray 290 Sundancer and you'll know immediately that this is a boat that is made for great weekends. She comes equipped with twin MerCruiser® 5.0L EFI Bravo® II stern drives, but you also have several gas or diesel options. In other words, the 290 Sundancer delivers everything you could possibly want in a sport cruiser.

With the pedestal table in place, four adults can dine comfortably. The dinette easily converts into additional sleeping accommodations.

Separated from the cabin by a privacy door, the mid-stateroom sleeps two adults and provides ample storage with a sliding screened window for fresh air.

The convertible V-berth with privacy curtain sleeps two adults comfortably. There's ample storage and a 20x20 hatch and screen for fresh air.
